Glowan Announces New E-Commerce Site

New on-line store enhances client's ability to access assessment products and other services.

San Jose, Calif., June 1, 2009 -- The Glowan Consulting Group, a recognized leader in Leadership Development and Executive Coaching, today announced the opening of a new on-line store allowing clients and partners to purchase their suite of Leadership Assessment Products directly from the site.

Adding to its recently updated web site, Glowan now is able to service a wide variety of customers and partners on a 24 X 7 basis. "We're very proud of our new offerings and the ability of our clients and partners to fulfill their needs in a much easier fashion" according to John Anderson and Marc Michaelson, Principals at Glowan.

Adding these services will make it easier and faster for users to get the products and services they require regardless of the time of day or day of the week. Glowan's business plan calls for increased automation and new products and services to satisfy the rapidly changing market.
